

Andy Tallon & Pilar Peters documenting Romanesque Churches

DEPARTMENT OF ART HISTORY & ARCHAEOLOGY

Since 1995, the VMC has developed cutting edge technologies essential for teaching art history and archaeology. Our work reaches beyond the computer, creating opportunities for students in New York City and on field projects around the world. Whether in the studio, classroom, or abroad, our programs offer opportunities that mirror the diverse interests and intellectual creativity of our faculty and students.

There are many ways for you to join us. Help us with our goals of new equipment and fellowships, or make a long-term investment in our endowment. Either way, your help will bring the innovative ideas of our faculty to the Columbia community and beyond.

- $ 500
Provide equipment for our students to use on field projects
- $ 750
Support towards a graduate fellowship for a new media project
- $ 1,000
Upgrade computers for the graduate student computer lab and digital classrooms
- $ 5,000
Contribute to our endowment, securing staff lines into the future
- $ _____
Help as you see fit

Your participation is greatly appreciated. Make checks payable to the Visual Media Center. Return this form and your contribution to:

Visual Media Center, MC 5518 | Columbia University | New York, NY 10027

The VMC is a 501(c) non-profit organization. Donations are tax-deductable.

Prof. Hilary Ballon & students explore the works of Robert Moses

The graduate student and faculty computer lab